National Student Auditions Mission Statement

The NATS National Student Auditions are put forth in the spirit of the National Association of Teachers of Singing's objectives.

The National Student Auditions are designed to:

- Inspire and encourage singers and teachers to continue their dedication to, and growth in, the art of singing
- Embrace all genres of vocal music as art worthy to be studied, respected, and appreciated
- Create a collegial, supportive, and inclusive atmosphere that encourages excellent artistic singing
- Provide constructive, written feedback from a panel of experienced and impartial adjudicators
- Recognize and honor outstanding performances
- Create the NSA as a structure that continues to evolve and improve with each audition cycle

Our National Student Auditions Regulations are an outgrowth of the Mission Statement and have been put in place to achieve a number of objectives. They are meant to standardize the registration, categories and repertoire for all NATS auditions with an eye toward uniformity and ease of process, drawing on research from NATS singer auditions in the 15 regions as well as at the chapter level. In this way we can bring the NSA in line with other national bodies that have set their own standards for local through to national events.

The regulations also serve to:

- Allow for a comparison of scoring data from one end of the NSA to the other.
- Establish a shared vocabulary and definitions for vocal music repertoire as it is presented in our auditions.
- Put in place common systems for language and scoring so that a teacher or singer, whether acting as adjudicator or singer, can move between chapters and regions with a clear grasp of what a NATS audition entails.
- Offer categories that are reflective of the diversity, inclusion and cultures within our growing membership and their particular areas of expertise.
- And finally, to give the singers of our members a chance to hone the necessary skills in a setting that is safe and supportive, rather than one of a talent competition.

Why the National Student Auditions?

What is the purpose of NSA auditions?

The National Student Auditions exist first and foremost as an educational experience and series of opportunities for a singer. The audition process promotes intentional repertoire selection, artistic discovery, and the development of efficient, versatile, and expressive singing.

Teachers play a central role by selecting repertoire that builds progressively from one level of achievement to the next. Each selection serves as a stepping stone, reinforcing established skills while introducing new artistic and technical concepts. Over time, these carefully sequenced experiences develop complete singers who communicate with technical security, musical understanding, stylistic versatility, expressive artistry, and professional confidence.

The National Student Auditions recognize that artistic excellence is achieved through consistent growth rather than a single performance highlighting ten minutes of the singer's semester. Success is not simply measured in the NSA Auditions by rankings or awards, but by each singer's continued development as an artist, musician, and communicator. Every audition provides an opportunity to celebrate progress, identify the next stage of growth, and advance the educational mission of NATS.

The Role of New Repertoire in Artistic Development

One of the primary educational goals of the National Student Auditions is to encourage the continued study, growth in building competence in varied musical styles, and performance of new solo repertoire for every singer. Each audition cycle provides an opportunity for singers to expand their musical knowledge, develop new technical and artistic skills, and discover works that contribute to their long-term growth as complete musicians.

To support this educational mission, repertoire performed in a previous National Student Auditions cycle should not be reused during the next annual chapter and region cycle. While revisiting repertoire remains an important part of vocal study and performance, the National Student Auditions are intended to inspire continued exploration and learning through the preparation of new literature. By encouraging fresh repertoire each cycle, NATS helps singers broaden their artistry, deepen their musicianship, and build a more diverse and meaningful repertoire throughout their studies.

Auditions or a Competition?

Isn't this a competition?

Using the Oxford definitions as a starting point, there is an important conceptual distinction that supports the philosophy of the NATS National Student Auditions. Oxford defines an audition as “a short performance given by an actor, singer, etc., so that somebody can decide whether they are suitable to act in a play, sing in a concert, etc.” In other words, an audition is fundamentally an adjudication of readiness or suitability.

By contrast, Oxford defines a competition as “an event in which people compete with each other to find out who is the best at something.” The defining purpose of a competition is ranking participants against one another to determine winners. Applied to the National Student Auditions, these definitions highlight a distinction that is often misunderstood:

NSA Auditions	NATS Competitions
Evaluates the individual singer against the standards established by the NATS rubrics	Compares singers against one another
Focuses on artistic development and growth	Focuses on determining rankings and winners
Multiple singers may demonstrate the same level of achievement	Rankings are necessarily limited
Recognition is earned by meeting objective standards	Awards are earned by outperforming other competitors

The National Student Auditions are an educational audition process that includes competitive elements. Singers are first evaluated against published standards of vocal and artistic achievement. Those who meet established benchmarks may earn recognition, such as Semifinalist, based on merit rather than quota. Competitive ranking is then used only to determine advancement to the final round and the awarding of final placements.

The National Student Auditions are rooted in the educational mission of NATS. They provide a structured environment in which singers learn to prepare, perform, receive professional feedback, and refine their artistry. While the auditions include competitive recognition, their primary purpose is to promote excellence in the teaching and learning of singing.

Clear, easy to understand regulations that set expectations and empower every participant.

FAIR & CONSISTENT

Systems that promote fairness, consistency, and opportunities to resolve errors before they impact student eligibility.

STRONGER TOGETHER

Practical resources and collaborative networks that empower and support singers, teachers, and auditions teams.

OneAudition strengthens the integrity of NATS auditions and preserves the spirit of encouragement, collegiality, and student-centered growth.

ONE COMMUNITY. ONE MISSION. ONEAUDITION.

NATS OneAudition Initiative

The NATS OneAudition initiative seeks to create a more consistent, transparent, and sustainable audition experience for singers, teachers, adjudicators, and Auditions Chairs at every level of the organization. Whether participating in a chapter, region, or national audition, NATS members should encounter a process that is recognizable in format, language, expectations, and adjudication practices while still allowing space for local traditions and regional identity.

OneAudition is focused on three primary goals:

- creating clear and easily digestible regulations for all participants,
- establishing systems that promote fairness, consistency, and opportunities to resolve errors before they impact singer eligibility,
- and supporting Auditions Chairs through practical resources and collaborative networks.

By developing common frameworks, terminology, and procedures, OneAudition strengthens the integrity of NATS auditions while preserving the spirit of encouragement, collegiality, and singer-centered growth that has long defined the organization.

Something New Just for You!

A Better NSA Experience Starts Now

For generations, the National Student Auditions have inspired singers, challenged teachers, and served as one of NATS' premier educational experiences. As our organization has grown, musical styles have expanded, and technology has transformed the audition process, it was time for our resources to evolve alongside them.

The NSA Refresh is designed with one goal in mind: to make every audition experience clearer, more consistent, and more accessible for everyone involved.

Behind the scenes, every regulation, rubric, and audition process was carefully reviewed. We simplified language, removed unnecessary complexity, reorganized information around the needs of our members, and created practical resources that help singers, teachers, adjudicators, and auditions teams understand expectations before the first note is sung.

The result is not a new National Student Auditions—it is a stronger one. The educational mission and integrity of NSA remain unchanged, while the experience becomes more transparent, more equitable, and easier to navigate at every level.

Clearer expectations. Better resources. Stronger auditions.

What can you expect?

- Consistency through OneAudition
- Dedicated rules and regulations documents for each division: Classical, Commercial Music, and Musical Theatre
- Educational growth over competition
- Repertoire guidelines with a renewed emphasis for the long-term development of our singers as artists ending double dipping
- Revised repertoire regulations to simplify the process and keep the categories serving the music they were created for
- Simplified regulations written for singers, teachers, adjudicators, and Auditions Chairs
- Standardized auditions across every level of NATS
- Transparency in procedures and advancement

Your Path to NSA

The annual NSA cycle begins on September 1st and ends on July 31st.

Region Auditions

- NSA starts at the region level. Some regions use chapter auditions as qualifying rounds, but only the final region results can send a singer to NSA.
- Only singers placing 1st–5th in their region's nationally eligible categories advance to the National Preliminaries, and only with qualifying scores of two 90's or an average of 90 from the regional preliminary round. Singers tied for 1st–5th also advance. Winning at the chapter or region level does not automatically qualify you.
- The songs you submit at the national level must be the SAME songs you performed at your region audition.

National Student Auditions Qualifying Round

Qualified singers get an invitation in April. To enter, you must:

- Complete the online registration and pay the national fee
- Submit one unlisted YouTube video for each required song
- Perform the same repertoire you entered at the region auditions
- Follow all the video submission rules

About 15 singers per category advance to the National Semifinals.

National Semifinals

Semifinals happen at the NATS National Conference (even years) or the Summer Workshop/AuditionCon (odd years).

- You perform songs from your regional entry
- You choose your first song
- Adjudicators pick the rest, within your category's time limit
- Three singers per category advance to the Finals

National Finals

- Each finalist performs one song from their list
- Adjudicators rank the finalists independently
- 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place awards are given in each category
- Every finalist receives a certificate

National Entry Timeline

- March 30: Regions send in qualified singers and approved repertoire
- 2nd Friday in April: Deadline for national registration, fees, and YouTube videos
- Early May: Preliminary adjudication finished
- Mid-May: Semifinalists notified
- June/July: National Semifinals /Finals

National Entry Fee

- $95 per category
- Covers the Preliminaries, Semifinals, Finals, and admission to conference or workshop events
- Separate from chapter or region fees
- Nonrefundable
- $25 technology fee for CM entries

Collaborative Pianists

- You may bring your own or request a staff pianist
- Staff pianists for Semifinals cost an extra fee
- Short rehearsals are provided before Semifinals
- Finalists using staff pianists get a short rehearsal or sound check before Finals

NSA REGULATIONS - ALL CATEGORIES

AGE LIMIT

A singer's age category is determined by their age on September 1, the first day of the NSA audition cycle, and remains the same throughout that cycle. An audition cycle begins in September and finishes in July.

- Students may not enter a category if they exceed its maximum age limit.
- Students enrolled in or holding a music degree who are older than the age limit for their level of study may enter that category for comments only or enter an eligible Non-Traditional Student category (non-advancing) according to requirements.
- Students whose age qualifies them for a higher category than their current level of study may choose to enter the higher age-appropriate category competitively.
- NSA categories have no minimum age requirements except the Avocational Adults Category, Non-Traditional Adults Category, and the Hall Johnson Spirituals Competition.

ARRANGEMENTS

An arrangement is an adaptation of an existing song or composition. It may include a new accompaniment, changes to melody, rhythm, harmony, or form, or even a different musical style. Arrangements that omit verses of repertoire regardless of publication are not permitted. In the Hall Johnson Spirituals Competition and American Spirituals categories, settings of anonymous spirituals must credit the arranger. Arrangements obtained from unofficial sources, such as MuseScore, are not allowed.

AUDITIONING MEMBER TEACHERS

Eligible NATS member-teachers may compete in NSA auditions through their current teacher but may not self-enter. Those entering singers must also be available to adjudicate one category at the auditions.

CATEGORY

Categories are defined by voice type, age range, and length of study.

- All Voices: Children 1, Youth 2, and Spiritual Categories
- Treble Voices: Soprano, Mezzo-Soprano, Contralto, Countertenor Voices in Categories: 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13
- TBB Voices: Tenor, Baritone, Bass Voices in Categories: 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14

- Avocational Adults: 11 & 12
- Non-Traditional Adults: 13 & 14

NSA REGULATIONS - ALL CATEGORIES

COMMENTS ONLY

Any singer may elect to enter a category auditioning for comments only and participate exclusively in a preliminary audition. Adjudicators will not score auditions entered for comments only.

LENGTH OF STUDY

Children, Youth, and High School categories are based on grade level, not years of study.

Post-high school categories are based on a combination of age and the total years of voice study with any teacher, including private study, group lessons, college, university, or conservatory instruction. Any reasonable portion of a year will count as a year of study.

- Lower Post-HS: Age 22 or younger; 1st–2nd year of post-high school voice study
- Upper Post-HS: Age 25 or younger; 3rd–5th year of post-high school voice study and not enrolled in a graduate voice program
- Advanced: Age 30 or younger; 4th year or higher of post-high school voice study after completing a bachelor's degree.

OFFENSIVE LANGUAGE IN REPERTOIRE

NATS encourages teachers and singers to select NSA repertoire that reflects its commitment to a welcoming and respectful community for participants and audiences of all ages and backgrounds. Teachers should carefully consider lyric content. To respect copyright, lyrics may not be altered unless a published clean version exists or permission has been obtained from the copyright holder.

REPERTOIRE CHANGES

Once the qualifying NSA event has concluded, there is no room for any alteration of the repertoire. Those singers who move on to the NSA Qualifying rounds from the region auditions must put forward the very pieces that were submitted, vetted and approved by the chair of the region audition. Any deviation from performing the approved repertoire following the region level, even in part, will render a singer Ineligible to Advance to the next step of the NSA rounds.

REPERTOIRE LIMITATIONS

At the NATS Student Auditions, singers are adjudicated on their individual artistry, vocal technique, musicianship, and interpretation through the performance of solo repertoire. Accordingly, repertoire originally written for duets, trios, quartets, or larger ensembles in a production is not permitted. A limited exception is made for published solo editions approved by the copyright holder—authorized arrangements that preserve the complete original solo line while omitting only incidental chorus or ensemble passages. In these cases, the musical and dramatic integrity of the work remains unchanged, and the selection continues to function as a genuine solo performance.

NSA Classical (CL) Regulations

24/26/28 ITALIAN ART SONGS AND ARIAS

The repertoire found in the 24/26/28 Italian Art Songs and Arias collections may be counted as an aria or an art song in the high school (CL 3, CL 4) and lower classical categories (CL 5, CL 6). For the singers in the upper and advanced categories, these pieces may ONLY count as an art song, regardless of origin. Any repertoire found outside of these collections will be considered only as the composer intended as an art song OR aria.

ACCOMPANIMENT

A live collaborative pianist is required for in person CL auditions. A piano-only accompaniment track is allowed only for video auditions in CL.

ADDITIONAL AWARDS

Named and Sponsored NSA Awards are available to NSA's National Semifinalists and Finalists, who in their region's NSA event, enter the prescribed repertoire to be eligible for the significant sponsored award, prize, or scholarship.

AGE APPROPRIATE

Selections should be appropriate in technical difficulty, musical style, language, subject matter, and performance demands, allowing the singer to perform with musical accuracy, comprehension, and efficient vocal production. Teachers should carefully consider emotional content, staging, choreography, gestures, and physical interactions. Repertoire involving mature romantic relationships, sexuality, abuse, violence, addiction, suicide, or other adult themes is generally not appropriate for Children and Youth categories. Selections should reflect emotions, experiences, and performance expectations that the singer can communicate authentically and age-appropriately.

ARIA

An aria is a solo from an opera, oratorio, mass, cantata, zarzuela, operetta, or works titled "concert aria." Oxford Online definitions will be used for the purposes of NATS singer auditions. For example, Purcell's selections from the semi-operas and masques are considered songs.

ART SONG IN ENGLISH REQUIREMENT

English must be the original language set by the composer to meet the Art Song in English requirement.

For singers in the International Region from countries where English is NOT the primary language, any requirement for an English-language art song may be fulfilled by an art song in any official language of their country.

NSA Classical (CL) Regulations

CONTRASTING SELECTIONS

Contrasting selections will vary in tempo, text, dramatic content, composer, character portrayed, vocal colors, and style of music. Two or more songs by the same composer is a violation of this regulation and renders the singing Ineligible to Advance. Substantial variety among selections should result in a higher preliminary audition score.

DOUBLE DIPPING

Singers entering multiple NSA categories (Classical, Commercial Music, Musical Theatre, and/or Spirituals) may NOT use the same selection in any other category including the American Negro Spirituals category or Hall Johnson Category.

JUDICIOUS CUTS

Full, complete selections are required; however, judicious cuts in piano introductions, piano interludes, piano postludes as well as internal cuts within arias are allowed as is common professional performance practice. Cuts of verse or verses of selections are not allowed. In the case of strophic pieces, all verses should remain that are traditionally included.

MEMORIZATION

All repertoire must be performed from memory with the exception of Oratorio, Mass, Requiem, and Cantata Arias. Singers may hold legal copies of music scores for these types of arias as is traditional performance practice.

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE

All selections should be sung in original language or in a published translation that is recognized as an accepted standard in professional performance practice.

TRANSPPOSITION

Transpositions that are available for purchase by a publishing company are permitted. Singers are expected to retain the composer's intended style of music and to convey the essence of the character portrayed in the larger work. Performances not fulfilling these requirements may result in lower scores from adjudicators. Octave displacement is a transposition.

Determining the category and repertoire requirements

When a singer studies with a current NATS Professional, Emeritus, or Emerging Professional member in good standing, teachers should consider the following details and collect information before beginning registration:

1. First determine what category the singer belongs in:
 - a. Treble or Tenor Bass Baritone (TBB) - Singers will sing in the category that best describes their voice type that fits into the Treble or TBB designation.
2. Second, determine the singer's age as of September 1 of the competition cycle (September - July)
3. Finally, determine the singer's Grade or Length of Study
 - a. Singers in Pre-K through Grade 12 enter the category that matches their current grade level, provided they do not exceed the category's maximum age limit.
 - b. Singers having completed the equivalent of high school and/or secondary education must consider the length of study.
 - i. Counting a year of study begins on the first day of post-high school voice study. Once a singer begins study during an NSA cycle (September–Aug), that cycle counts as one full year of study, regardless of whether the singer continues weekly lessons for the entire cycle. Exceptions may be granted only in extraordinary circumstances when the singer is medically unable or formally prohibited from singing for a substantial portion of the cycle. Any exception must be approved by the Auditions Chair.
 - ii. Spirit of the Rule: The purpose of this policy is to ensure equitable placement by counting a singer's progression through time, not simply the number of lessons taken. Exceptions are intended only for extraordinary situations in which a singer is genuinely unable to continue vocal study because they cannot sing—not for scheduling conflicts, changes of teacher or school, study abroad, personal choice, or temporary interruptions in lessons. Auditions Chairs should apply the exception only when the extraordinary circumstances clearly prevent the singer from engaging in voice study for a substantial portion of the NSA cycle.
4. After determining the category the singer will compete in, then the teacher should consult the repertoire requirements for the category found on pages 18-28 in the Classical Music Category Guide.

BIENNIAL NSA CATEGORIES

American Negro Spirituals Categories

National levels of the American Negro Spirituals Category are held in seasons that conclude in July of an odd-numbered year. The three American Negro Spirituals Categories are offered in each region's NSA event with singers who place 1st – 5th with an eligible score then advancing to the national preliminaries. Chapters are encouraged to add these categories to their auditions. Where applicable, chapter auditions may serve as qualifying singers to advance to their region's auditions. These spirituals may appropriately be performed by all races of singers sincerely performing in a classical style.

American Negro Spirituals (AS) Regulations

CLASSICAL STYLE	The word "classical" in this context refers to singing spirituals in the classical style with only mild deviations and interpolation to what is written in the music and without musical theatre, pop, gospel, contemporary Christian, soul, jazz, rhythm and blues expressions or vocal technique. See the NSA Spiritual Adjudicator Training Video for the differences between Spirituals and Gospel Songs and more details on performing Spirituals in NSA.
CONTRASTING SELECTIONS	Contrasting selections will vary in tempo, text, dramatic content, composer, character portrayed, vocal colors, and style of music. Two or more songs by the same composer is a violation of this regulation and renders the singing Ineligible to Advance. Substantial variety among selections should result in a higher preliminary audition score.
DICTION	Because of the idiomatic nature of the spiritual, diction restrictions will be relaxed. Standard English pronunciations may be observed, e.g., "de" or "duh" may be replaced with "the." For more advanced singers, the scholarly study of diction in spirituals is equivalent to studying the lyric diction of other languages.
JUDICIOUS CUTS	Piano introductions, piano interludes, piano music after the vocal solo is completed, and internal cuts of spiritual selections are allowed as in common performance practice. Cuts of a verse or verses of selections are not allowed. In the case of strophic pieces, all verses should remain that are traditionally included.
MEMORIZATION	All audition selections must be performed from memory.
SPIRITUALS	Arrangements in classical style of the North American Negro Spirituals by composers similar in style to the spirituals of Hall Johnson, R. Nathaniel Dett, Florence Price, Moses Hogan, Edward Boatner, Undine Smith Moore, James Weldon and J. Rosamond Johnson, Margaret Bonds and others listed on the AS Authorized Repertoire page of the documents. The classical style excludes Gospel, Blues and Jazz music. See below for a link to more information available online.
SPIRITUALS IN ENGLISH	English must be the original language of the selection.
TRANSPOSITION	Copyright-compliant, purchased transpositions are allowed.

History of the American Negro Spiritual

The American Negro Spirituals are folk songs created by enslaved Africans in North America between 1619 and 1860. Although slavery officially ended with the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863, many enslaved people in Texas did not learn of their freedom until June 19, 1865, now celebrated as Juneteenth.

Created and sung by enslaved women, men, and children, these songs tell stories of faith, hope, suffering, freedom, and survival. Passed down orally through generations in fields, churches, and camp meetings, they are now performed on concert and recital stages worldwide.

NATS uses the term American Negro Spirituals to acknowledge the history, suffering, hope, and resilience embodied in these songs. As Dr. Everett McCorvey explains, the term connects the music to the people who created it and preserves an important chapter of American history. While some language may be updated in performance, the melodies, stories, and cultural significance of these spirituals remain unchanged. Whether called American Negro Spirituals, Negro Spirituals, or simply Spirituals, these songs continue to be celebrated and shared by singers around the world.

~ Dr. Everett McCorvey

NSA RATING AND SCORING

All NATS National Student Auditions use the same scoring system to ensure consistency across all levels of auditions

Audition Structure

- Rounds may include: Preliminary, Quarterfinal (if needed), Semifinal (if needed), and Final.
- Larger categories may be divided into multiple preliminary groups.

Preliminary and Quarterfinal Auditions

- An audition begins with a piece of the singer's choosing, followed by whatever the adjudicators call for up to the time limit.
- Time begins when the singer begins their slate.
- Performance must start from the beginning of the song; alternative starting points or cuts to ensure a certain portion of the song fits in the time limit are not allowed.
- Adjudication completed in accordance with the official NATS rubrics with scores from 70-100.
- Advancement to the next round requires a mark of 90 or higher, whether from an average or two individual scores.

Semifinal Auditions

- Perform one selection from submitted repertoire
- Adjudicators score (70-100) or rank numerically
- Up to five singers advance to Finals; when there is a tie for the lowest place, all tied singers may advance
- Adjudicators may not confer before submitting results

Final Auditions

- Perform one complete selection from entered repertoire
- Adjudicators rank independently, highest to lowest. Adjudicators will confer to break ties.
- Lowest combined ranking = top placement
- Awards presented after all finals completed

NSA Scoring System

- Current official NATS adjudication forms and rubrics used at all levels
- Scores range from 70-100 for objective adjudication and constructive feedback as guided by the NATS rubric
- Written comments must be provided during preliminaries; may be provided during semifinals
- Adjudicators must provide sufficient comments to reflect the score given

Understanding ITA

Although uncommon, a singer, singer's teacher or the singer's collaborative pianist may make a decision during a live or recorded audition that renders the singer Ineligible to Advance to the next round of the competition because they violated a rule of the NSA Auditions. An auditions chair may issue an ITA at any stage of the audition process once the matter has been reviewed, even if the protocol violation was not identified by previous adjudication panels or auditions chairs. An ITA is issued to ensure the consistency of the auditions throughout chapter, region, and national auditions.

What actions might render a singer Ineligible to Advance?

- entering repertoire that does not meet the category's requirements
- entering repertoire that does not contrast by composer, tempo and text
- entering the same repertoire in multiple categories and/or regions in the same season
- entering a song originally written for a stage musical, film musical, television musical, opera, or other dramatic work in the Commercial Music categories
- entering the auditions under the name of a teacher who is not the singer's primary or concurrent teacher
- failure to submit required documents by published deadlines at any level of the audition
- performing in a category for which one's age and grade or level of study as of 9/1/2026 does not qualify them
- performing repertoire not entered in the qualifying region audition in National NSA
- performing with any visual or auditory cues to assist with recollection of text or music (Exception: Oratorio, mass, requiem and cantata arias may be performed with a score, consistent with common practice)
- performing invalid cuts of vocal content
- performing with invalid accompaniment for the given category
- performing in costume, using props, and/or set pieces during the audition
- performing WITH a microphone amplifying the voice through an external speaker in CL auditions
- violating copyright law when accompanying musician performing from a score that is not compliant with U.S. copyright law
- violating the NATS Code of Conduct
- violating anything listed on the Video Submission Guidelines as making a video audition invalid (page 44)
- visually or audibly revealing the identity of one's teacher, or the teacher's or singer's school, location, chapter, or region

Please note: this is not an exhaustive list but provides the most common ITA violations

NATS COPYRIGHT POLICY

NATS encourages all teachers, singers, and collaborative pianists and requires participants to affirm compliance with the NATS Copyright Policy.. Copyright law protects musical works and prohibits unauthorized reproduction, including photocopying, scanning, photographing, or taking screenshots of copyrighted sheet music. Students and collaborative pianists are responsible for using only authorized music. Failure to comply with copyright law may result in ineligibility to advance in NSA auditions.

Acceptable Music

- ✓ Original printed scores
- ✓ Legally purchased digital scores with proof of purchase
- ✓ Public domain editions legally downloaded in the US from sources such as IMSLP or Song Central

Unacceptable Music

- ✗ Photographs, scans, or screenshots of copyrighted music
- ✗ Shared PDFs or screenshots provided by teachers, friends, or colleagues
- ✗ Copies made from library books, anthologies, or online images without a licensed download

A musical work can be in the public domain, while a specific edition of the score can still be under copyright. For example, Schubert's songs are public domain, but a newly engraved Peters edition is not.

- Collaborative pianists and their singers may use any legally owned printed score, but they cannot scan, photograph, or copy a copyrighted edition simply because the underlying composition is public domain.

Copyright law prohibits photographing or digitally reproducing sheet music, including taking photos, to be used on iPads or tablets.

- ✓ Singers and their collaborative pianist must perform from legally purchased, printed music or an officially licensed digital score with proof of purchase.
- ✓ Downloads from the public domain in the United States- such as IMSLP or Song Central – must be the exact downloadable editions.
- ✗ When a collaborative musician chooses to perform from an illegal copy during the auditions, the onus of responsibility for the copyright violation preventing the singer from advancing to subsequent rounds rests with the musician.

By participating in NSA events, all teachers, singers, and collaborative pianists affirm compliance with the NATS Copyright Policy.

NSA Classical Auditions Rubric

Each singer's performance is adjudicated in comparison to the following standards as applied to the category of entry.

STANDARD	DEVELOPING 70-79 points	ADVANCING 80-89 points	MASTERING 90-100 points
TONE • Resonance and timbre are appropriate to the style with balanced chiaroscuro and ring throughout range. • Transitions through passaggi are smooth and efficient. • Onsets and offsets are clean, clear, and balanced allowing for uniform vibrancy and clarity. • Dynamic flexibility is present. The singer engages the ability to make subtle changes in timbre appropriate to the style and character of the selection.	The singer is beginning to develop vocal resonance and balanced chiaroscuro timbre. Onsets and offsets delay or press the tone and cause extra noise or air. Transitions through passaggi are difficult or uneven. Dynamic flexibility is missing in much of the performance. Vocal colors do not enhance the style and character of the selection.	The singer is advancing in resonance and balanced chiaroscuro through some of the range. Onsets and offsets are mostly immediate, but some pressing or breathiness is present. Passaggi transitions are inconsistent. Dynamic flexibility is evident much of the time. Vocal colors mostly enhance the style and character of the selection.	The singer is mastering resonance. A balanced chiaroscuro tone rings throughout range. Onsets and offsets are immediate and promote clarity. Passaggi transitions are smooth and efficient. Dynamic flexibility is consistently evident in the performance. Vocal colors consistently enhance the style and character of the selection.
BREATH & ALIGNMENT • Inhalation is easy, full, silent, and efficient. • Exhalation provides stability, support, vibrancy, buoyancy, loft, and vocal energy. The alignment, coordination, and release of the head, neck, larynx, jaw, ribs, back, abdomen, legs, and feet assist a dynamic engagement of the vocal instrument. tone • Resonance and timbre are appropriate to the style with balanced chiaroscuro and ring throughout range. • Transitions through passaggi are smooth and efficient. • Onsets and offsets are clean, clear, and balanced allowing for uniform vibrancy and clarity. • Dynamic flexibility is present. The singer engages the ability to make subtle changes in timbre appropriate to the style and character of the selection.	• You have the beginnings of a rich, colorful voice. • Your sound must be a vehicle for expression of text. • The [u] vowel is overly modified to my ear. • Allow your sound to carry more naturally. • The lower register could resonate more freely.	• More pressure may not be the answer in order to tune that pitch - you may have to make a space, lip, or vowel change. • I would love to hear more clean/clear/unmodified vowels in your lower and middle voice. • If you modify too much it then becomes about your sound.	• Balanced resonance from top to bottom. • Beautiful tone. I want to listen to you and the words. • Excellent tonal consistency and ring. • Your tone communicates with ease and beauty.
BREATH & ALIGNMENT • Inhalation is easy, full, silent, and efficient. • Exhalation provides stability, support, vibrancy, buoyancy, loft, and vocal energy. The alignment, coordination, and release of the head, neck, larynx, jaw, ribs, back, abdomen, legs, and feet assist a dynamic engagement of the vocal instrument.	• Take time for breath. • Continue to work for legato where your breath is more continuous. • Breath management will strengthen longer phrases.	• I see you taking a deep inhalation most of the time, but I wonder if you could take more time with the inhalation. • Take time for relaxed inhalation, almost as if you choreograph the breath into the interlude before it's time to sing.	• When you take your time, you are better able to prepare the pharynx and release the larynx for a warmer, more opulent tone that we are hearing in your singing today.
TEXT & DICTION • Languages are sung with accurate pronunciation and effective articulation with idiomatic inflection beyond basic phonetics. • The singer displays a thorough understanding in communicating the text. Phrasing and flow respect the nuance of each language.	• Final schwas should not be nasal. • Some syllables are indistinct. • Continue refining language accuracy.	• Diction is generally clear and idiomatic in inflection, although I would like to hear stronger consonants in the German diction. • There are times in this piece where your articulation/enunciation seems very natural, in spite of the pitches being well outside the range of). I think this is really important. Other times it seems like you are over shaping or over enunciating.	• I appreciate the attention you are paying to make sure that the audience gets the text, but in these moments, we lose some of the naturalness/sense of honesty because the articulation chops us the sound. • Every word contributed to the storytelling.

TONE - Resonance and timbre are appropriate to the style with balanced chiaroscuro and ring throughout range. - Transitions through passaggi are smooth and efficient. - Onsets and offsets are clean, clear, and balanced allowing for uniform vibrancy and clarity. - Dynamic flexibility is present. - The singer engages the ability to make subtle changes in timbre appropriate to the style and character of the selection.	- You're using a vocal color that suited the style and the text. - While soft singing was largely under control, there is room to put more core into the piano dynamics for better continuity. - More ease and consistent release in the upper register would be an improvement.	- The voice has some promising flexibility, especially when warmth and lyricism are called for. - Registration was dealt with carefully, yet a smoother transition between registers would add to consistency.	A warm and focused tone was evident in your performance, one that did justice to the emotional depth and expressive nature of the spiritual.
BREATH & ALIGNMENT - Inhalation is easy, full, silent, and efficient. - Exhalation provides stability, support, vibrancy, buoyancy, loft, and vocal energy. - The alignment, coordination, and release of the head, neck, larynx, jaw, ribs, back, abdomen, legs, and feet assist a dynamic engagement of the vocal instrument.	- Overall, breath management was secure enough to see phrases through with musical intent. - A more economical plan for breath management would serve some of the longer lines better.	- The technique is well-suited to the repertoire, if not for an occasional tension that gets in the way of free production. - The vocal line held up well, though support wavered slightly at the end of a phrase here and there.	Lower abdominal engagement would go a long way in sustaining both phrase length and nuance.
TEXT & DICTION - Languages are sung with accurate pronunciation and effective articulation with idiomatic inflection beyond basic phonetics. - The singer displays a thorough understanding in communicating the text. - Phrasing and flow respect the nuance of each language.	- Diction was for the most part clear and the text easily followed. - On occasion, final consonants got in the way of the legato; a better balance of clarity and continuity would help.	- Some of the internal words might be articulated with a bit more specificity. - To round out the resonance and stylistic coherence, give closer attention to vowel purity. - Stylistic authenticity might be improved in some passages by a more colloquial singing of the text, as the edition or context allows.	- Your diction is a strong point; consonants were present for clarity but did not break the line. - Vowels were unified and served an expressive delivery of the text. - The text was put forward with conviction and a sensitivity to its emotional weight.

MUSICIANSHIP - Pitches and rhythms are accurate. - Tuning is accurate throughout range. - The markings of the composer, editor, or arranger are observed and present in the performance. - Selections are accurately performed from memory.	- The repetition in the spiritual was given enough of a varied touch to hold interest. - A better balance between classical vocal production and the idiom of the tradition would be an asset.	- There was a steady pulse to your singing which gave the piece's more expressive moments a firm underpinning. - Your dynamic choices were thoughtful and they supported the arc of the piece.	- Dynamic shading was used to good effect in illuminating the narrative and emotional contour of the work. - There are places where a more deliberate inflection would heighten the contrast. In the climactic moments, a more text-driven immediacy would serve the performance well.
ARTISTRY - The performance synthesizes vocal and physical communication to embody and express the character and story/poetry. - The performance embodies clear musical intent and embraces the uniqueness of the singer. - The listeners are engaged in a believable and fulfilling aesthetic performance.	- A deeper study of the cultural context would add to the stylistic authenticity - For the most part, your interpretation had the kind of simplicity and directness one expects from the genre, while still being expressively sincere.	- The phrasing was handled with care, so as to let the melody come across in a natural and expressive manner. - One can see a sincere engagement with the material and an understanding of its language that is still in development. Some technical polish, more consistent management of the breath and clearer text work would do much to enhance the vocal freedom and impact of the performance.	- One could hear an awareness of the communal spirit and call-and-response energy of the genre in your interpretation. - There was a clear sense of the spiritual's mix of lament, hope and resilience in what you did. You handled the emotional side of things with the proper seriousness, eschewing any excess sentimentality.
ENSEMBLE (comments only) The singer and pianist coordinate their efforts toward the same artistic goals in the performance. Before Adding Your Video Links

Prior to pasting video links into AuditionNow, it is the responsibility of the NATS member entering the singer to:

- confirm that you have the required slate for each video
- confirm that the video was uploaded and plays in landscape orientation
- confirm that the video and music are in sync;
- confirm that the volume of the singing is adequate to be adjudicated;
- confirm that the performance is of a complete selection.
 - Extended silences before and after your performance may be trimmed.

It is essential to confirm that the video performance matches the selection's title on YouTube and on your entry's registration. Copy and paste errors duplicating links make an audition Ineligible To Advance.

Confirming Video Links

- NSA National Qualifying Round Video submissions are always due on the 2nd Friday of April.
- Whether using AuditionNow or AuditionWare, the teacher will need to paste the individual web link/URL for each YouTube video to upload under the correct repertoire item on the platform
- Do not paste video links with a space before or after the link
- Upload 2, 3, 4, or 5 separate videos matching the number of selections required in your NSA Category of Entry.
- Confirm that there are not any copy and paste errors nor duplicate links well in advance of the deadline.

Full NSA Video ITA Considerations

Invalid Video Considerations

Teachers and singers are responsible for ensuring that all repertoire, video recordings, submissions, and registration materials comply with NSA requirements. Failure to meet these requirements will result in a singer being designated Ineligible to Advance (ITA). The following issues make a video submission and singer's entry Ineligible to Advance to subsequent rounds:

- YouTube & Access Issues
 - Videos uploaded as private or public
 - Videos removed by the user or by YouTube for copyright infringement
 - YouTube submissions that are monetized
 - Copy and Paste issues, duplicate video links, and failure to override a link from a previous audition
- Repertoire & Eligibility Issues
 - Repertoire that violates the NSA Guidelines
 - Video submissions of repertoire not vetted, approved and performed in the region category that qualified the singer for National Preliminaries
 - Videos recorded before September 1 of the 2026/2027 NSA audition cycle
 - Videos that are incomplete; full songs are required
- Identity & Confidentiality Violations

A History of NATS Auditions

National guidelines for Student Auditions (SA) were first conceived in 1977. Following a national survey of chapters and regions, a committee chaired by Judith Nicosia Civitano developed the 1993 Guidelines for Student Auditions, which served NATS for the next sixteen years.

A 2007 survey of chapter and regional policies led to further revisions by a committee including Kathleen Arecchi, Elaine Case, Roma Prindle, Connie Roberts, and Anne Christopherson. Their work established a mission statement for Student Auditions, clarified responsibilities for organizers, and identified best practices.

In 2010–2011, a committee chaired by Norman Spivey explored creating a national audition system that would allow singers to advance from a region to the national student auditions. Building on this work, a committee chaired by Deborah Williamson developed the National Student Auditions (NSA) Guidelines, which were approved by the NATS Board of Directors in 2012.

From 2012–2014, the NSA structure, categories, repertoire requirements, and fees were finalized and published online. The NATS Board approved the launch of National Student Auditions in 2013, and the inaugural national semifinals and finals were held in Boston during the 2014 NATS National Conference. More than 150 singers participated, 37 advanced to the finals, and 24 singers shared $30,000 in awards.

In 2014, Dan Johnson-Wilmot and committee members Karen Brunssen, Mark McQuade, Robert Wells, and Melanie Williams developed a national model for Student Auditions based on NSA Guidelines. The model established greater consistency across chapters and regions while creating a pathway for singers to progress from local auditions to national audition. Today, more than 10,000 NSA auditions are heard annually.

In 2022, the NATS Executive Board expanded NSA opportunities by adding 16 new categories, including Commercial Music divisions and additional Classical, Musical Theatre, and Commercial Music categories for children and youth. Introduced during the 2023–2024 audition cycle, these additions increased the annual NSA offerings to 34 categories, in addition to the biennial American Negro Spirituals categories and the alternating Hall Johnson Spirituals Competition.

National Student Audition Regulations continue to be reviewed and revised regularly by the NSA Regulations Committee with input from NSA Auditions Chairs and NATS members.

Have Questions?

Need help?

If you have questions about the NATS Student Auditions process, your first point of contact should always be the Auditions Team for the event in which you are entering students—your Chapter, District, Region, or National auditions. As always, thank you in advance for extending grace to the volunteers that are organizing, preparing, and running your auditions.

These teams are trained to support participants with registration, repertoire requirements, scheduling, and event-specific procedures. Beginning with your local auditions team ensures that questions are answered quickly and consistently, using the policies and procedures that apply to your event.

If additional guidance is needed, the Auditions Team will consult with the National Student Auditions (NSA) Team on your behalf to obtain clarification or resolve complex questions. This process promotes consistent interpretation of the regulations while allowing the NSA Team to focus on policy matters that require national review.

Please begin all audition-related questions with your event's Auditions Team. They are your primary resource and will coordinate with the NSA Team whenever additional assistance is required.
